

present

The £20k Start-up Prize Giveaway Competition

Supported by

What could you win?

We are offering two lucky early stage entrepreneurs the opportunity to win a package of start-up business support and resources, worth £20k for each winner!

There are 2 prizes of £20k in total to be won.

University of Portsmouth

Business School: £1k to each winner towards a laptop/IT hardware which we will source from our suppliers (no cash alternative is offered) and award to the winners. The University will also provide advice and support from their network. Value £1k

Nosy Creative Agency: branding research to establish their brand in the market. Logo design process including 2 sketches and concepts free of charge. Supplying final files for chosen design. Value £5k

Hampshire Web Design: a website for each winner (with or without e-commerce, up to 20 products if e-commerce); premium website theme and GDPR plugin licence for 2 years with security suite. Value £3k

Xebra Accounting: a 12 month Xero business accounting licence and assistance with setting up accounts and online bank accounts. Plus, quarterly support calls (12 months) for questions on accounting and business growth. Access to accounting business workshops with Xebra will also be provided for 12 months in total. Value £2k

PC Consultants: remote support for IT set-up on their PC, including ongoing consulting and consultancy. Up to 5 e-mail addresses and Office 365 for 12 months. Value £3k

StartUp Disruptors: one year's membership to our online business incubation community, including a package of PR and advertising of the winners across our social media feeds online. Access to connections and our network is also included. Value £6k

Apply online now

startupdisruptors.co.uk/competition

Applications open from October 12th 2022 and will close on January 31st 2023

All entries will be subject to shortlisting and judging by our panel of business experts from the companies and organisations listed.

In order to choose two winners in 2023, shortlisted entrants will be contacted and may be asked to take part in a short selection process and online interview.

StartUp Disruptors is an online digital coaching and business incubation community, backed by UK universities, angel investment, and innovation networks worldwide.

We are on a mission to enable gender parity and social mobility for women and neurodiverse people. To support people to start and scale successful businesses.

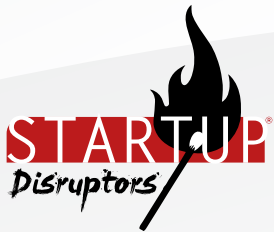

So far, we have helped over 5,000 people start businesses. Since 2016, we have helped businesses raise £2m in private sector and grant funding.

Join us

Subscribe from just £19.99 per month to access a helpful network of support, a knowledgeable community, and a vast range of suppliers. Our contracts are 'cancel anytime', so there is no risk. We are all online and can help you start and scale up. Get involved!

The £20k Start-up Prize Giveaway Competition

You must be an early-stage business (within the first 24 months of trading) from across the UK. Start-ups can be from any discipline and sector; but this competition does not include charities and other social enterprises. Ideas stage and pre-revenue enterprises are welcome.

IMPORTANT, PLEASE READ

Terms and conditions of entry apply and are available in full online at startupdisruptors.co.uk/competition

By entering via the website, you will be bound by the terms and conditions and we will need your consent to share data with our partners, as stated above, in order to be entered and receive your prize.

Shortlisted candidates will be contacted no later than end of February 2023 and the prize will be awarded no later than March 2023 in Portsmouth, Hampshire (at a location and an event to be confirmed). Winners must be able to attend to claim their prize.

Please note that travel and associated costs to be involved with the competition award will NOT be covered by us, so please be aware of this when you enter online.

Entries are accepted online only via the dedicated landing page.

The judge's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.

The winner may consent to being involved in promotional publicity. This can be in person, online, or as a brand ambassador for the StartUp Disruptors community, and may include video and photography.

By entering, you agree to consent to have your data shared with the partners, sponsors and judges for the purposes of this competition only; we handle all data in line with GDPR in the UK. Partners will need to contact you in order to arrange your prize to felicitate your claim. This is an integral part of the application process, so please ensure that you are happy with this.

You have to be over 18 years of age to apply and no cash alternative will be offered.

This competition is free to enter and is operated by Little Kanga Ltd, Suite 107, 5 Charter House, Lord Montgomery Way, Portsmouth, Hants, PO1 2SN (reg no 10427511).

Entries open from 12th October 2022 online and end at midnight on January 31st 2023.

startupdisruptors.co.uk/competition